Honorable Walter E. Fauntroy
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Fauntroy:

The Central Intelligence Agency is honored that you have agreed to be our keynote speaker in observance of Black History Month. I understand that there will be a coffee reception for you at 1130 followed by your speech at 1215 on Tuesday, 2 February.

Admiral Inman and I deeply regret that because of previous commitments to testify before Congress, we cannot welcome you personally. However, you will receive a warm reception from the Agency's Executive Director, John N. McMahon, and the Director of Equal Employment Opportunity, John H. Dohring.

We thank you for accepting our invitation.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
